Mid-Pacific Institute iPad Case Specifications & Guidelines

We are requiring all students to purchase a case that follows Mid-Pacific Institute's specifications and guidelines for use with their school-owned iPad Air (5th Gen.)

While no case can provide a 100% damage-free guarantee, there are many cases that can help reduce incidents of accidental damage. That said, just because the school-owned iPad is in a case, it does not mean the iPad is impervious to damage. It is important to remember that the school-owned iPad will still need to be used carefully regardless of the case.

Purchasing any iPad case from this list does not indemnify parent(s) or student(s) of any damage that occurs to the iPad while in the student's possession. iPad case specifications and guidelines are subject to change at any time without notice.

Parents are encouraged to research the best case for their child and to shop around for the best price at local stores and online. When looking for a case, please choose one where the iPad's camera, various buttons as well as charging port are not obstructed. Please plan ahead if ordering online to allow ample time for the case to arrive before picking up the iPad.

iPad Case Specifications and Guidelines

- The iPad case must properly fit and be made specifically for Apple’s iPad Air 5th Generation model. The back shell must be fully protected. A cover for the front screen is optional but highly recommended.
- All four corners of the iPad must have some kind of protection from damage.
- If you decide to purchase a keyboard attached case, the case MUST protect the back, as well as all four corners of the iPad in its entirety.
