Mid-Pacific's summer program is open to the community and includes academic curricula for preschool to grade 12 and Recreational and Sports programs for ages 3 through adult. A coeducational, independent, and college-preparatory day school, Mid-Pacific's summer sessions offer educational opportunities to its students as well as students not regularly enrolled.

Mid-Pacific is a nondiscriminatory employment and educational institution.

By registering and submitting payment for Mid-Pacific Summer School, students and their parents and/or guardians agree to adhere to policies and procedures outlined in the summer school catalog. They also give Mid-Pacific permission to photograph and/or video their child for use in audio, video, film, or any other electronic, digital, or printed Mid-Pacific media.

Mid-Pacific does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, or gender in administration of its educational or admissions policies, financial aid programs, athletic, and other school-administered programs.

Guidelines and Policies

BOOKS/FEES
Certain classes may require that books be purchased and/or fees be paid for handouts, field trips, and supplies. Also, certain classes require the use of an iPad and/or laptop. Non-Mid-Pacific students may be required to bring their own iPad with required applications and/or laptop. More information will be provided with the course confirmation.

CREDIT FOR CLASSES
Mid-Pacific students who wish to earn credit or higher placement by taking courses during the summer should receive prior approval from their dean. In departments where courses are sequential (e.g., Mathematics, World Language), students seeking higher placement as a result of summer work completed at a school other than Mid-Pacific will be asked to successfully complete a departmental examination in order to receive higher placement the following school year.

Once a student is placed in a course on audit status, that student may not revert back to taking the course for a letter grade.

CREDIT TRANSFER
Obtain a request form for report cards to be sent to other schools from the Summer School office after completion of a course.

DROP/WITHDRAWAL OF A CREDIT COURSE
A student may drop a course (with no designation made on the student's transcript) up to and including the third instructional day of the designated session. After the third day, the drop will be considered a withdrawal. If the withdrawal is after the first semester grade is issued, the grade will stand on the records and will be included in the student's CGPA (cumulative grade point average), otherwise a “WD” will be recorded on the student's transcript. No refund will be given.

KAWAIAHAʻO LIBRARY AND COMPUTERS

LIBRARY LOCATION & HOURS
The library is located on the ground floor of Kawaiahaʻo Hall and is open from 7:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

LIBRARY’S PRINT COLLECTION
Serves students in grades 3-12. The non-fiction books for all grades are shelved together, but fiction books are separated into a middle school collection (FIC-M) and a young adult collection (FIC). Print magazines/newspapers are available for browsing within the library.

LIBRARY’S ONLINE DATABASE COLLECTION
The library has a number of subscription databases for research that provide access to online eBooks, magazine & newspaper articles, and reference articles. Databases are Web-based and can be accessed from school or home.

LIBRARY BEHAVIOR
Quiet, courteous behavior is expected from all visitors to the library. Please enjoy all food outside of the library. Students are expected to show respect for library materials and equipment.

CIRCULATION OF MATERIALS
Regular books have a 2-week loan period.

LOST BOOKS
Because library materials are shared resources, students with overdue materials may not check out library materials until all overdue items are returned. Students with overdue books who fail to return the books by the last day of summer school will be charged for the cost of the book(s).

LIBRARY COMPUTER EQUIPMENT
The library has laptops and desktops available for student use. There is a campus Wi-Fi network for enrolled students.

WEINBERG TECHNOLOGY PLAZA
Weinberg Technology Plaza is home to high school technology, engineering, and digital media courses, while Chew Technology Center is the home for middle school technology, design and digital media classes. Other resources in the buildings include laptop carts, Virtual Reality studio, 3D printers, laser cutter and a maker space that includes tools and fabrication equipment. Weinberg offers two conference rooms, Seminar Theater and Ideation Zone. The first floor of Weinberg permits general-use computer access and project resources for students. It is open from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily. Students may use the facility for educationally appropriate activities under the supervision of the building facilitators who coordinate resources and provide help as needed.
COMPUTER, DIGITAL MEDIA & INTERNET ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY
The effective operation of the computer network and its resources relies upon the proper conduct of the end users who must adhere to strict terms and conditions. These terms and conditions are provided here so that you may become aware of the responsibilities you are about to acquire. The use of Mid-Pacific's computing facilities/resources and the Internet is a privilege, not a right. If a user violates any of these terms and conditions, disciplinary action and/or legal action may be taken. A copy of the current AUP/RUP for students can be found at: http://www.midpac.edu/aup/aup.pdf.

Students attending summer school and their parents/guardians will abide by the terms of the Computer, iPad, Digital Media & Internet Acceptable Use Policy (AUP). Breach, disregard, or violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

SCUDDER DINING HALL
Scudder Dining Hall will be opened from June 10 to July 19 for snacks from 9:50 a.m. to 10:10 am, and for lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

Code of Conduct / Dress Code

CODE OF CONDUCT
It is the goal of Mid-Pacific to provide an environment that is safe, comfortable, and conducive to learning. Students are expected to abide by the conduct policies as outlined in the Mid-Pacific Student/Parent Handbook, which is summarized in this catalog. Mid-Pacific reserves the right to dismiss or require withdrawal of any student who in Mid-Pacific's sole discretion and determination, violate these policies.

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR
Students are expected to:
● Attend all classes promptly and regularly.
● Bring appropriate supplies and books as well as completed homework assignments to class.
● Be responsible for own possessions and to be respectful of the possessions of others.
● Develop and maintain behaviors which are conducive to a positive learning environment, including attentiveness, participation, interest, cooperation, and consideration of others. Vulgarity/profanity, gum-chewing, and inappropriate eating/drinking are prohibited.
● Turn off cellular phones, pagers, and any entertainment devices during class time. Using these items is prohibited during class time, assemblies, meetings, and other school-related activities unless authorized by instructor.

GENERAL CONDUCT
Students are expected to:
● Refrain from displaying or using entertainment devices (e.g., iPods, cellular phones, pagers, electronic games) during class time unless otherwise instructed by teacher.
● Refrain from any activities involving cheating/plagiarism, gambling or card playing, dishonesty/deception, stealing, vandalism, or littering.

● Limit possessions on campus to those directly related to class activities. Distractive or disruptive items such as radio-controlled cars, playing cards or gambling paraphernalia, knives, explosives, fireworks, etc., should not be brought to school.

● Refrain from the use/possession/promotion (or being under the influence) of illegal drugs/substances, including alcohol, cigarettes, and tobacco-related products.

Violations of rules concerning classroom behavior or general conduct will result in disciplinary measures, which may include counseling with a student and/or parents, penalty work, confiscation of inappropriate items, suspension or dismissal. In cases of possession or promotion of illegal drugs/substances, a referral will also be made to the police. Make-up work will not be given for work missed because of inappropriate/improper behavior.

DRESS STANDARDS
Mid-Pacific polo shirts are not required during summer school. Follow the dress code below:

● Cleanliness, modesty, and good taste are minimum standards by which one's appearance is judged.

● Tops - Regular T-shirts may be worn. Tank tops, tube tops, and muscle-T-shirts may not be worn; sleeveless blouses may be worn provided they are not cut in from the outer corner of the shoulders.

● Footwear - Student safety is our greatest concern, therefore, students are required to wear shoes that cover the entire foot.

● Bottoms - must be solid, which means one color and may not be higher than 2” above the knee. Frayed clothing is prohibited (jeans, polo shirts, and coats). Athletic shorts, board shorts, sweat pants, leggings/jeggings or tights are not within the Mid-Pacific Middle School dress code and not allowed.

● Hair Styles - All students are to maintain hairdos that are neat, conservative and not distracting. Unnatural hair color (purple, green, blue etc.) is not permitted.

● Facial hair – Boys need to be clean-shaven.

● Body piercing or tattoos are not permitted.

● Headgear – Hats, caps, or visors may be worn outdoors, but are to be removed when one is inside a building. Bandannas or other symbols/garments associated with gangs and or gang activities may not be worn or displayed.

STUDENTS WHO ARE NOT PROPERLY ATTIRE FOR SCHOOL WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO ATTEND CLASSES UNTIL THEY MEET THE DRESS STANDARD; MAKE-UP WORK WILL NOT BE GIVEN FOR WORK MISSED BECAUSE OF FAILURE TO MEET THE DRESS STANDARD.
Call 808-973-5025 to report an absence.

All students are expected to be prompt and to attend all classes. The school strongly discourages missing school for any reason. For example, leaving early or missing days for sport camps, vacations, and/or conferences will not be excused and no make-up work/ quizzes/exams provided.

Attendance is extremely important during the summer because instruction is intensive and concentrated. Only absences due to illness or emergencies will be excused and make-up work provided.

EXCESSIVE ABSENCES MAY RESULT IN DISMISSAL AND IN RECEIVING NO CREDIT FOR THE CLASS. FOR CREDIT COURSES, ABSENCES ARE NOT TO EXCEED THREE DAYS. NO REFUND WILL BE GIVEN.

Parents should report a student’s absence to the Attendance Office by calling 808-973-5025 by 8:30 a.m. each day that the student is absent.

SE9021 | $489 | 7/22-7/26 (1 week) | 8:00am-5:00pm | Entering grades PK-6

An after summer school session where preschoolers (Mid-Pacific preschoolers only) and students entering grades K to 6 will participate in a broad range of activities (the variety of activities are dependent upon enrollment). Daily activities include science and PE. Other activities include cooking and water play. Students will have opportunities to go on excursions and community walks. In previous summers, students went on outings to the Honolulu Zoo, Kualaon Ranch, The Hawai‘i Nature Center, The Children’s Discovery Center, Chuck E. Cheese's, The Humane Society, Aiea Bowl, Sea Life Park, The Pacific Aviation Museum, Bishop Museum, and the Waikiki Aquarium. There will be no lunch service during extended camp, so children must bring lunch from home.

A BETTER ME (HCCF)
XS90071 | $430 | 6/10-7/19 Mondays and Wednesdays | 1:00pm-2:00pm | Entering grades 6-8
It is never too late to improve executive function and self-regulation skills to help plan, focus attention, remember instructions, and juggle multiple tasks successfully. The student will engage in self-exploration and discover the nine important executive functioning skills (e.g., impulse control; emotional control; flexible thinking; working memory; self-monitoring; planning and prioritizing; task initiation; persistence; and organization). Demonstration of executive functioning skills with repetitive opportunities to practice with support will promote the goal of mastery all while having fun. This Class is focused on improving important life skills and promoting the love of learning (even when challenges occur). Small class sizes to promote individual growth. Classes limited to 12 students.
Non-credit course

RESILIENCE (HCCF)
XS90071R | $430 | 6/10-7/19 Mondays and Wednesdays | 2:30-3:30pm | Entering grades 6-8
Using games to improve self-esteem, teamwork, communication skills, self-discovery and coping skills.
Classes limited to 12 students.
Non-credit course
Summer Swim and Tennis

By registering and submitting payment for Mid-Pacific Summer School, students and their parents and/or guardians agree to adhere to policies and procedures outlined in the summer school catalog. They also give Mid-Pacific permission to photograph and/or video their child for use in audio, video, film, or any other electronic, digital, or printed Mid-Pacific media.

Registration is on a first come, first served basis. Three two-week sessions, Monday through Friday (except Kamehameha Day and Fourth of July holidays). Ability and age grouping.

SWIM

Availability of instructional levels is based upon demand. Low enrollment at a specific level may result in cancellation of classes at that level, especially when demand for class space is greater at other levels. Make-up class will be allowed for absences due to illness or emergencies only if arrangements are made with the sports office. Pets are not allowed near swimming pool.

Co-educational classes age 3 to adult.
